

You Don't Remember Me

By: James Russell Orr

(Copyright 2008 Library of Congress #PAu3-372-930)

Dedicated To The Most Special Girl

This is what the LORD says: "A voice is heard in Ramah, mourning and great weeping, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because her children are no more." Jeremiah 31:15 (NIV)

Verse 1

Wonder of God, you'll always be my baby girl
Born on a cold, dark December eve
For one hundred and thirty-five days I loved you as my own
Then they took you away, and I know you don't remember me

Chorus

I know you don't remember me
You held my heart in your tiny hands
I know you don't remember me
I remember you

Verse 2

Wonder of God, you started out against the grain
Born with the cord of life wrapped twice around your neck
With no one to care for you, I loved you as my own
Then they took you away, and I know you don't remember me

Chorus

Bridge

No spoken words; no tiny steps
No birthday smiles; no pretty dress
No pony rides; no Chuck E. Cheese
No kisses for daddy

Verse 3

Wonder of God, I saw a child who looked like you
She wore a pink ribbon laced throughout her hair
Her daddy kissed her cheek; tears dripped from my eyes
Because they took you away, and I know you don't remember me

James Russell Orr: Guitar, Bass, Keyboards, Drums, and Lead and Background Vocals