

Bimini Road

I wander alone
Down Bimini Road
This place is home
To many souls
My oldest friend
Said we'd meet here again
When the fourth world ends
And the fifth begins

I stumble alone
Down Bimini Road
Just as we did
So long ago
You held me tight
As the day
Turned into night
Your eyes
My last sight
As they extinguished
The light

I search alone
Down Bimini Road
Maybe you'll show
Or maybe you won't
Gripped by our lips
And locked at the hips
A promise made
Forgot till this day

I roam alone
Down Bimini Road
Hoping to know
The ghosts in the shadows
The shift is near
But I have no fear
I will just sit
And wait for you here
