

Magic Key

Lyrics by Lee Placchi (3-24-08)

As I drift into my dreams
I see you in my mind
Hear your voice and feel you close
In past and future time

Sweetness of your every breath
Softness of your touch
Radiant and glowing smile
Wanting you so much

Where are we
When are we
Why aren't we
So much more today?

I feel you thinking of me too
Wondering what can be
The key that opens all that's locked
Behind the mystery...

Of this deep longing from beyond
The present lives we live
What will this experience
Ultimately give?

Why can't we
Both just see
We can be
Together and be free?

Let us wake and see the truth
Together we shine bright
Tearing down the walls of time
Lighting up the night

Souls and bodies bond as One
As we discover shores
Of perfect understanding
Deep inside our very cores

Why can't we
Both be free
Where did we
Hide the magic key?
