Where is she, who is she
Could she be you?
Distance doesn't mean a thing
When love is pure and true

Harmony is heard and felt
Waves of gentle pleasure
A map that just might light the way
To unexpected treasure

A door has been opened
Take a peek and see
If this soul satisfies you
If you're the one for me

Willingness to learn and share
Each other's true desire
Spend a little time and see
If water likes this fire...and both rise higher...

Musical One...
Sing me a song
Tell me what you're feeling now
Put it into words and trust
The rest comes through as it knows how

Musical One...
Write from your heart and soul
Are you as curious as I...
As I am in this moment
To know...Oh, who-o-o-ah...

A door has been opened
Take a chance and see
If this soul satisfies you
If we are meant to be...

Musical One.....Musical...One...
