

Sometimes (You Just Need...)

(verse) Sometimes you just need
To let the teardrops fall
Cleansing one and all
Opens up the wall

(verse) Sometimes you just need
To let your soul shine through
Let it make it's sound
No matter who's around

(chorus) Sometimes it might feel heavy
So give it full release
We're not emotional police
Just in need of inner peace
No need to patch the levee
The water wants to find
New light beyond your mind
So to yourself be kind

(instrumental verse) <----->

(verse) Sometimes you just need
To let the teardrops fall
Cleansing one and all
Opens up the wall

(verse) Just let yourself see
It's OK to grow into
The one who's really you
Creating life that's free and true

(ending) Sometimes....sometimes....sometimes....
