

State

Lyrics by Lee Placchi (6-4-11)

State of mind, state of spirit, state of body, state of soul,
Unconscious pursuit of an unfulfilling goal,
Masses maintaining these twisted morphic fields,
Recognize and sidestep, dissipate and yield.

All the worry, all the pain, all reflections so insane,
Pull the ripcord quickly after jumping from the plane,
A moment of terror, of overwhelming fear,
Support from above suspends the brave who shed a tear.

Love will never let you down,
You mess around.

(instr break)

<----->

Ride the wind, walk the air, the moment is right there, as we
Wake up and celebrate where we are.
Break out of prison, the walls are our creation, we can
Choose to outshine the brightest star...
Love will never let you down,
You mess around...You mess around.

Nothing's outside my breath as I step through the veil,
My choice, I steer, as the wind picks up the sail,
No matter direction, I am the director,
Script manifested through this inner projector.

State of mind, state of spirit, state of body, state of soul,
Embracing, forgiving, simply choosing to be whole,
One with Source, one with all everywhere,
State of love begins in here, and it show up over there...

Love will never let you down,
Listen to the sound...it's all around...
Love will never let you down.
