(verse) Neither one is ready now
The tide is out at sea
Weather's not yet clear enough
Creation isn't free

(verse) The trials of waiting patiently
Duality of feeling
The day will come when you and I
Break easily through the ceiling

(chorus) Forgive myself for losing sight
Of where I want to walk
My path is beckoning to me
To do much more than talk

(verse - soft) Will I be there when it's time?
My heart and soul say yes
Time for you and time for me
Open to caress...

(pause) <----- ( 1,2,3,4 ) ----->

(verse) Our lives, our hearts, our souls
Growing to such height
Our friendship and our love
Beacon of glowing light

(verse) Knowing and accepting truth
Will take us very high
No need understanding it
Useless to even try

(chorus) Waves of time are moving through
This process so divine
Within ourselves we ride the curls
And taste the salty brine
So fine...waves of time.....waves of time

(Instrumental) <----->

(verse) A day can seem eternity
Perspective we make true
But through the journey there will come
Time for me and you

(verse - softer) Loving me and loving you
The universe provides
Nourishment and full support
Surrender to the tides

(chorus) Waves of time are moving through
This process so divine
Within ourselves we ride the curls
And taste the salty brine

(ending) So fine...waves of time.....waves of time
