

Now May the God of Power and Grace

Isaac Watts, from Psalm 20

D A D A G F#m Bm A

Now may the God of power and grace At - tend His peo - ple's hum - ble cry!
 The name of Ja - cob's God de - fends Bet - ter than shields or bra - zen walls;
 Well He re - mem - bers all our sighs, His love ex - ceeds our best de - serts;
 In His sal - va - tion is our hope, And in the Name of Is - rael's God,
 Some trust in hors - es trained for war, And some of char - iots make their boasts;
 O! May the mem - ory of Thy Name In - spire Thy peo - ple for the fight!
 Now save us, Lord, from sla - vish fear, Now let our hopes be firm and strong,

A7 D A G F#m D A D

Je - ho - vah hears when Is - rael prays, And brings de - liver - ance
 He from His sanc - tu - ar - y sends Suc - cour and strength, when His love ac - cepts the sac - ri - fice Of hum - ble groans and
 The saints shall lift their ban - ners up, And shout His prai - ses
 Our sur - est ex - pec - ta - tions are From Thee, the Lord of Our foes shall be brought down with shame, Or quit the field in Till Thy sal - va - tion shall ap - pear, And joy and tri - umph

D A D

from on high.
 Zi - on calls.
 bro - ken hearts.
 far a - broad.
 heaven - ly hosts.
 dread - ful flight
 raise the song.