The LORD is com - pas - sion - ate and gra - cious, Slow to
 As a father has com - pas - sion on his chil - dren, So the an - ger, a - bound - ing in love; He will not al - ways ac - LORD pi - ties those who fear His name; For He knows how we are

- cuse, Nor will He har - bor his an - ger for - ever. He does not treat us formed, That we are dust, mere - ly dust of the ground. As for man, his days are as our sins de - serve, Nor re - pay us for all the wrong we've done;

 like the prai - rie grass, And his glo - ry: a flow - er of the field;

But He paid such a great price: Giv - ing the life of His own pre - cious Son.
 Then the wind blows o - ver it and it is gone, And its place is for - gotten.
