

Who Shall Ascend Thy Heavenly Place

Isaac Watts, from Psalm 15

Who shall as - cend Thy heav - en - ly place, Great God, and Whose hands are pure, whose heart is clean, Whose lips still Scarce will he trust an ill re - port, Nor vents it
Firm to his word he ev - er stood, And al - ways
He nev - er deals in brib - ing gold, And mourns that He loves his en - e - mies and prays For those that Yet when his ho - liest works are done, His soul de - dwell be - fore Thy face? The man who trusts the Sav - iour now, speak the thing they mean; No slan - ders dwell up - on his tongue;

to his neighbour's hurt: Sin - ners of state he can des - pise;
makes his prom - ise good; Nor dares to changethe thing he swears, jus - tice should be sold: While oth - ers scorn and wrong the poor, curse him to his face; And doth to all men still the same
- pends on grace a - lone; This is the man Thy face shall see,

And hum - bly walks with God be - low.
He hates to do his neighbour wrong.
But saints are hon - oured in his eyes.
What - ev - er pain or loss he bears.
Sweet char - i - ty at - tends his door.
That he would hope or wish from them.
And dwell for ev - er, Lord with Thee.
